Located in the sought-after Jardin Exotique district, this spacious 3-room apartment is situated within the elegant Granada residence, which offers a concierge service for added convenience and security. With its comfortable layout and generous proportions, this property presents an ideal opportunity for those seeking a refined lifestyle in Monaco.

The apartment begins with a welcoming entrance hall that leads into a bright and airy living room. This main living area opens onto a large front-facing terrace, perfect for enjoying the panoramic views or entertaining guests. The kitchen is positioned towards the rear of the apartment, providing a functional and private workspace for culinary pursuits.

The private quarters consist of two well-sized bedrooms, each with its own en-suite bathroom for maximum comfort and privacy. The master bedroom enjoys direct access to the terrace, offering a seamless indoor-outdoor living experience and a tranquil retreat within the residence.

This property is sold with the added benefit of a private parking space, ensuring convenience in this desirable location. Combining space, functionality, and a prestigious address, this apartment is an excellent choice for a sophisticated home or a smart investment in Monaco.
