In the heart of the Principality, in the prestigious Riviera Palace building, lies a 4-room apartment currently under renovation, ready to bring your dream to life. Located in a quiet residential area, just a few minutes' walk from the Casino Square, this property offers a unique combination of tranquility and convenience. High-quality materials and a modern design with light, neutral tones create the perfect space for comfortable living.

The apartment features an entrance hall with corridor, a spacious double living room opening onto a balcony with views of the sea and the Casino, a fully-equipped separate kitchen, three bedrooms opening onto balconies, each with its own private bathroom and dressing room, and guest WC.

The apartment includes one parking space, with the possibility to purchase up to three additional spaces in the same building.
