Set within a private, gated community, just a stone's throw from the villages of La Turbie and Laghet, and only 15 minutes from Monaco, discover this charming Provençal-style villa.

Built on a lot of approximately 2,000 m², the property enjoys a quiet, secluded setting and offers pleasant, unobstructed views of the greenery and mountains.

The ground floor opens onto an entryway leading to a spacious living room with a dining area, enhanced by a large fireplace and extended by a spacious covered and enclosed terrace, offering a true additional living space facing the pool. The open-concept kitchen blends seamlessly into the overall design. This level also features two bedrooms, a bathroom, a separate toilet, and a laundry room located in the utility area.

Upstairs, two large en-suite bedrooms each have their own bathroom and walk-in closets, one of which has access to a private terrace.

The annexes consist of a wellness area with a gym, sauna, and steam room, as well as a workshop.

Outside, the grounds are harmoniously laid out with a pool area at the front of the house and a landscaped space at the rear, allowing you to enjoy different living atmospheres throughout the day and as the sun moves. A carport and a private parking area complete the property.
