building. It spans 148 sqm and enjoys abundant natural light thanks to its open exposure.

The living area opens onto a terrace with sweeping views over the Casino gardens and the sea. The independent kitchen is fully equipped.

The principal suite is located on the façade, with terrace access, generous wardrobes and an en-suite bathroom. Two further bedrooms complete the layout, one with its own bathroom, the other with a separate shower room.

One underground parking space (level -2) is included.

A highly desirable property for its natural light, central location, and emblematic views over Monte-Carlo
