In the heart of the Rocher, a historic and emblematic location, this studio represents a great opportunity for lovers of authenticity and tranquility.

Located in a small bourgeois-style building, this 45 m² property has been tastefully renovated, combining the charm of the old with modern features.

The space has been cleverly redesigned to offer a bright living room with a dining area, a fully equipped kitchen, a sleeping area with an adjoining shower room, built-in storage, and a separate toilet. Two balconies provide a pleasant openness to the outside and enhance the feeling of space.

This property, subject to Law 1235, will be sold free of any occupancy.
