Located in the heart of Mareterra, Monaco's new landmark district, discover an exceptional four-room apartment designed by Renzo Piano, offering over 500 sqm of living space and panoramic sea views. A brand-new residence, to be delivered by the end of 2024, combining contemporary design with outstanding amenities.

In the heart of the new eco-district Mareterra, one of the most exclusive areas of the Principality thanks to its avant-garde design, exceptional location, and premium services, discover an outstanding apartment to be delivered in December 2024 within the prestigious residence Le Renzo, designed by world-renowned architect Renzo Piano.

This rare property embodies a unique and contemporary lifestyle, offering high-end amenities. Residents enjoy privileged access to luxurious facilities such as an outdoor swimming pool, a fitness center, and wellness lounges including hairdressing and massage services.

This luxury apartment impresses with its generous volumes and refined finishes. It offers 528 m² of interior space extended by 151 m² of terraces with sublime views over the sea and Monaco's port. The living area includes an entrance hall, a spacious double living room opening onto a large seafront terrace, and a master suite featuring two dressing rooms and a sumptuous bathroom with double shower and double washbasins, opening onto a wide terrace. Two additional bedrooms, each with en-suite bathroom, dressing room, and private terrace, complete the night area.

The modern kitchen, equipped with a central island and a wine cellar, has been designed for gourmet enthusiasts. A laundry room, maid toilets and a service entrance complete the layout.

Three parking spaces and a cellar complement this exceptional property.
