This three-room apartment with high-end finishes is located in the Ambassador building, located on the famous Boulevard des Moulins, one of Monaco's most popular shopping streets, animated by many shops, cafes and restaurants.

This central address makes it easy to reach the Larvotto beaches, luxury boutiques and the Casino de Monte-Carlo.

The residence has an elegant façade and offers luxury services such as a concierge service and an elevator.

Thanks to its privileged location, everything is easily done on foot: shops, leisure and access to the sea.

The Ambassador is a sought-after building for its remarkable location and the quality of its services.

This modernized three-room apartment with excellent finishes opens onto an entrance hall that leads to a large living room with a contemporary kitchen with central island, a dining area and a living room, offering a pleasant and harmonious living room.

The night area includes two comfortable bedrooms, each with built-in storage and its own shower room: one with shower room, the other with bathroom.

The apartment also has balconies.

The work, carried out by a recognized professional, highlights high-end materials, a warm contemporary style and particularly neat finishes.

The apartment is currently being renovated and will be delivered soon.
