The fully equipped kitchen, with its striking emerald-green marble countertops, offers everything required for one's culinary efforts.

From the living area, you access the spacious master suite, where sliding glass doors lead onto the terrace and frame a picture-perfect sea view. The suite is complemented by a generous dressing area and a sumptuous en-suite finished in unique marble.

The apartment further offers two additional bedrooms, each with its own en-suite bathroom and dressing space. One of these bedrooms also enjoys access to a private terrace. A guest loo completes the apartment.

This property is rented with a cellar within the residence and a parking space located in a neighbouring building.
