Ideally located in a dominant position on Boulevard Édouard VII, just a few minutes' drive from the town center, the port, and the beaches, this charming semi-detached contemporary house, currently nearing completion, has been fully renovated to a high standard with premium finishes. It enjoys an exceptional panoramic sea view over the Baie des Fourmis and Cap Ferrat. Built over three levels, the property comprises an entrance hall, a superb living room, a separate kitchen with utility room, all opening onto the main terrace and swimming pool. The villa also offers three spacious en-suite bedrooms, two of which have access to a lovely terrace with breathtaking sea views. Storage space and private parking complete this property, set within a small, secure estate with an electric gate.
